Isaiah 56:6,7 (NLT) "I will also bless the Gentiles who commit themselves to the LORD and serve him and love his name, who worship him and do not desecrate the Sabbath day of rest, and who have accepted his covenant. (7) I will bring them also to my holy mountain of Jerusalem and will fill them with joy in my house of prayer. I will accept their burnt offerings and sacrifices, because my Temple will be called a house of prayer for all nations."

Ephesians 2:14-18 (NLT) For Christ himself has made peace between us Jews and you Gentiles by making us all one people. He has broken down the wall of hostility that used to separate us. (15) By his death he ended the whole system of Jewish law that excluded the Gentiles. His purpose was to make peace between Jews and Gentiles by creating in himself one new person from the two groups. (16) Together as one body, Christ reconciled both groups to God by means of his death, and our hostility toward each other was put to death. (17) He has brought this Good News of peace to you Gentiles who were far away from him, and to us Jews who were near. (17) Now all of us, both Jews and Gentiles, may come to the Father through the same Holy Spirit because of what Christ has done for us.

Religion had changed the _____ of the temple from a place to meet and worship God into a place of meeting man's expectations.
